CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

To ORESTES.

HAIL thou renowned Son of Agamemnon! THE FRIEND TO TRADE hails thee: welcome from the Shades, to mingle with the busy World again.—Illustrious Proof of Transmigration indeed thou art. Stained with the Blood of thine own Mother, stung to Death by a Viper, still thy gallant Deeds gained thee Admission to Elysium, and wreathed thy Brow with unfading Laurels. The revolving Age at length is come—the Ivory Gate has opened, and, without being obliged to drink of the River of Forgetfulness, thou art once more permitted to breathe the vital Air, still conscious of thy former Name and past Atchievements. But oh, quantum mutatus ab illo! who could have thought that the Soul of the great ORESTES—the Avenger of his Father's Death—the Conqueror of Pyrrhus and Thoas—the valiant Friend of Pylades, should have been obliged, instead of his native fertile Mycene, to inhabit the sandy Lands of Carolina; and that too, confined in the humble Form of the most brainless of Animals.—But still, brainless as thou art, Respect is due to what thou once hast been—and even thy Brayings, in Behalf of the Hero so lately attacked by the Tongue of "Envy and Ignorance," ought to be attended to. Pardon, if unaccustomed to thy Language, even the PRINTER did not understand thee, and under the Name of an Answer to THE FRIEND TO TRADE, has published rather his Vindication. But lest the Benefit of thy Labour should be lost, and thy Consistency pass unseen, in Consideration of thy sad Metamorphosis, THE FRIEND TO TRADE presumes to give ORESTES in plain Language, and make the Application of his loud Discourse.

And first, "The Liberty of the Press is unquestionably one of "the most invaluable Privileges a free People can enjoy:" Yet, in the present Case, to use that Liberty by ironical Remarks upon the expensive Ostentation of a Man in Post, is "to represent his "most innocent Deeds in Colours of the blackest Dye, and tends "to the Encouragement of Vice, and the Destruction of Virtue."

The Liberty of the Press is a Privilege "by which Errors in "the Conduct of Ministers may be represented:" Yet to do this by Way of Irony, or in any other Way by which the Printer is secure from the Lash of political Vengeance, is "to prostitute "the Design of the Legislature"—and I do pronounce the Defence of burning Powder upon the sound Principles of Philosophy, Commerce, and Policy (though I understand neither of them) to be an Abuse of the Press, designed to scandalize "an "exalted Character, and to laugh at virtuous Actions." And whereas that profane Pen has presumed to scratch down the hallowed Name of CLAOCINA, and to make mention of her Altars, not forgetting the old Divinity of my Country, I do hereby zealously declare it guilty of "ridiculing even Things sacred "and divine," and cognizable for the Crime of cloathing the modest Ideas of a (Necessary) in rhetorical Flowers, alias, "in "profane and loose Expressions."—I also declare, by all the Authority aforesaid, that this Writer having "gained so many Ad-"mirers," is the Effect of that stupid Taste which prevails in Charles-Town, among other Places, by which such profane Stuff, uttered in a Manner destitute of "all Propriety," though it be "a Jumble of incoherent Absurdities, and of Thoughts "without Meaning—in short, a Rhapsody of unintelligible Non-"sense, is esteemed as approaching nearest to true Wit and "Humour:" And while I thus treat the Taste of the respectable Public, I desire to be considered, by every candid Person "who sees an Inch beyond his Nose, as a Judge of what is "liberal and worthy the Pen of a Man of Generosity and Po-"liteness. And, as much may be alledged in Favour of every "Man, be his Proceedings ever so blameable, or his Crimes ever so inexcusable—and as "a Governor is not exempt from "Failings, being but a Man:" Yet so much will I alledge in his Behalf, that "human Frailty is an Excuse for a Multitude "of Errors," and ought to be admitted, in this Case, as a sufficient Plea for his L———p's putting the Province to the small Expence of Two Thousand Six Hundred and Fifty Pounds Currency, within Three Months, only in the Article of Gun-Powder, for the important Purpose of letting Heaven and Earth know when HE passes and repasses, and re-repasses the Forts. And now to conclude.

Though I understand not Politicks, "nor would dispute "with any Man upon political Subjects," yet I mean to answer a political Paper. Though I "attempt not to vindicate his Con-"duct," yet I am writing his Vindication. Though I am "an "entire Stranger" to that noble "Character and Proceedings," yet I pronounce the Man a Rascal who dares to question them, and his Attack to be the Effect of "Envy and Ignorance." Though I don't know any Thing about the Matter, "yet, as "a Well-Wisher to my Country, I think it my Duty to undeceive "the Public."—Though, I say again, "an entire Stranger to "his Proceedings," and of Consequence know not where the Censure should lie, yet do I sagely undertake "to point out, and "convince them on which Side the Abhorrence should fall." In short, though I am an Ass, I take upon me to describe the "characteristical Perfection" of an Author.

CHARLES-TOWN, Oct. 13, 1772.

P. S. The Public, by comparing, will judge whether THE FRIEND TO TRADE has not giving the true Meaning of ORESTES.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 15.

NOT less than Nineteen Representatives of the Inhabitants of this Province, duly met, are sufficient to constitute a Commons House of Assembly, to do Business. It has been very unusual, for even that Number, to assemble on the Day that the Writs of Election were made returnable. Three or Four Days have generally elapsed, before a bare House could be made, to choose a Speaker. But our late elected Representatives have been so zealous, to attend the Service of their Country, at this Time, when the Royal Prerogative is exerted with rather a high Hand, that, notwithstanding all the Dangers, Inconveniences, &c. of meeting at a Distance little short of Seventy-four Miles from the established Seat of this Government, no less than THIRTY-SEVEN of the said Representatives were assembled Court-House in the Town of BEAUFORT, upon PORT-ROYAL ISLAND, on Thursday the 8th Instant, by Ten o'Clock in the Morning; Thirty-four of whom, by Noon, had taken all the Oaths required by Law, unanimously rechosen the Hon. PETER MANIGAULT, to be their Speaker, and were ready to present him to the Governor, and proceed upon Business. But His Excellency being pleased to signify, that he would receive the House, to present their Speaker, on Saturday the 10th, at Twelve o'Clock, the Speaker was not approved, nor the Session opened, till that Day and Hour, when His Lordship was pleased to deliver the following SPEECH, to both Houses, to wit,

Honourable Gentlemen,
Mr. Speaker,
And Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

MY constant Attention to preserve the Laws of this Province from Violation, was the only Cause of my calling the General Assembly at this Time. My Knowledge of the Situation of Affairs in this Country, and of her real Interests, and my ardent Wishes to promote them, induced me to summon this General Assembly to meet in this Town. I have exercised, and shall continue to exercise the Royal Prerogative, in such a Manner, as, in my Opinion, may promote His Majesty's Service, and the general Advantage of the People over whom I have the Honour to preside: And while I am cautious, in the most extreme Degree, that I do not violate the Laws, I shall be perfectly satisfied with my Conduct, so long as I exercise such Powers only, as are constitutional.—Such I shall always exercise with the best Intentions, and with a corresponding Firmness.

A long Space of Time having elapsed, since the Inhabitants of this Province have received Benefit from the Deliberations of a Commons House of Assembly, many salutary Laws have expired, and others are near expiring, which ought to be revived and continued; the People have not acquired such new Laws as recent Circumstances have rendered necessary; and the Public Creditors, for Years past, are yet unpaid their just Demands. I wish the Commons House of Assembly may remember, that a Delay of Justice is a Denial of Justice.

Being sensible of the only Cause of the late Public Dissentions, and of the Inconveniences and Distress with which this Province is loaded, I cannot but most sincerely lament the distressed Situation of our Public Affairs: And, as there is not any Instance of a lawful House of Commons having ever appropriated, and caused Money to be issued for Public Services, of their sole Authority, and against the Consent of the other Branches of the Legislature, or even having at any Time claimed such a Power; so, upon the Principles of our Constitution, of Law, and of Reason, it cannot be allowed, that any Commons House of Assembly of this Province, can, or ought to have any such Power.

Careful as I am, not to invade the constitutional Rights of a Commons House of Assembly, it is my indispensible Duty, to endeavour to preserve, to each Branch of the Legislature, its native Powers of Legislation; and I do earnestly wish, that the weighty Affairs of this Province, may be deliberated upon, and transacted, with that truly patriotic Spirit, which can, with Magnanimity condemn and abandon any Measure that is an Alien to, incompatible with, and destructive of, the Rights and Powers of that Mode of Legislation, from which our own is modelled, and from which alone the People of this Province derive all their Liberties as English Subjects, and all those Rights, Privileges, and Powers of Legislation, which can be legally exercised by their Representatives in General Assembly.

By as much as you all prize and value the Rights of English Subjects—by so much let it be your Care to demonstrate, by Acts, which are of much more Consequence than Words, a due Veneration of that Form and Spirit of Government which has granted, and now regulates and preserves, those invaluable Privileges to the Inhabitants of this Province. As it is your Interest to preserve the English Spirit of Government, so it is your Interest to preserve to each Branch of the Legislature, such Powers as are peculiar or common to each. In this Case, the safest Means to preserve the Constitution, is to maintain each particular Part of it inviolate. Innovations are dangerous—they are, in general, sure to create Contentions; which, unhappily for Mankind, too often make quick Progress to Anarchy. Wherefore, let me recommend to you, in the strongest Terms, that you be careful to endeavour to annihilate any Innovation, which, by violating constitutional Privileges of Legislation, thereby evidently tends to destroy that happy Poise of Power which is the peculiar Characteristick and Palladium of Legislature, founded upon, and assimilated, as nearly as may be, to Principles of British Legislation; the constitutional Spirit of which is so admirably tempered and compounded, that nothing can endanger or hurt it, but Attempts and Innovations calculated to destroy the Equilibrium of Power between one Branch of the Legislature and the Rest.

The Commons House of Assembly claiming to issue Monies, for Public Services, of their sole Authority, has so alarming a Tendency, that it cannot be too anxiously guarded against. Such a Measure is evidently capable of destroying and overturning every fundamental Principle of that Constitution of Government, which is the Envy of admiring Nations. To persist in such an unconstitutional Claim, would be in Effect to declare a Design to acquire a Power, which is inconsistent with the English Constitution; a Measure which, in the natural Consequences of Things, is pregnant with the most formidable and certain Dangers, to the true Interests of the People of this Province; but, to annihilate an unconstitutional Claim, is most virtuous and most honourable. Such a Proceeding is the most infallible Criterion of a true Patriot, and a wise Senator. By such a Conduct, you will in the most laudable Manner, discharge your Duty to your King, to your Country, and to yourselves. I am willing to hope for such a distinguishing Proof of true Patriotism from this Commons House of Assembly; such a Conduct will, of Course, render the Exercise of unusually exercised Prerogatives unnecessary, which, although to a few Persons, they may be displeasing Remedies, to operate against the Orders of the State, are not therefore the less legal or inadequate to effect their ultimate End, and the Good of the People.

At this, my first Meeting with this General Assembly, I chuse to deliver my Sentiments thus fully and candidly, upon a Point of so high Consequence, as the Preservation of our Legislative Powers in their native Force. With the best Intentions for the Public Service, I do recommend this most serious Subject to your most attentive Consideration. I shall, at all Times, give every Encouragement in my Power, to engage you to proceed to the Consideration of public Affairs, with that Temper, Candour, and Benevolence, which must naturally prevail in Public Deliberations, when the Public Good is truly understood, and is really meant to be promoted: And, as I have now some Reason to think, that the speedy Sitting of the General Assembly in CHARLES-TOWN, may induce such Deliberations; and I pledge myself to you, that at all Times, I shall exercise my Authority in such a Manner, as I may think will have a Tendency to induce such Deliberations as may be of Public Benefit; I do prorogue this General Assembly to the Twenty-second Day of this Instant, OCTOBER, to be then held at the usual Place in CHARLES-TOWN; and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

BEAUFORT, Oct. 10, 1772. } Charles-Greville Montagu.

The Council consisted of the Hon. John Stuart, William-Henry Drayton, and Barnard Elliott.—There having been some Dispute about Precedency, we are at a Loss which of the two former Names to place foremost.

Most of our Representatives returned to this Town on Monday and Tuesday, and were saluted with the Ringing of Bells.

His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles Greville Montagu, our Governor in Chief, &c. returned also, Yesterday Evening, and was saluted by the Firing of Cannon from the Forts and Bastions.

One Inspector of the Flour made in this Province, being found insufficient for this Town, two more are appointed, and added to Mr. Robert Hawie, viz. Mr. George Gray, and Mr. John Shutterling.

Captain Ralph Moore, of the Snow Live-Oak, who arrived here last Saturday, from Madera, met with a Hurricane on the 20th past, which was so violent that he expected his Vessel would have foundered.

Two Sloops of and from this Port, the Thomas & Anthony, Captain Gibbs, and the Liberty, Captain Beek, for St. Kitts, met with the same Gale, and are put into Bermuda; the former was hove on her Beam Ends, and the latter lost her Bowsprit.—A Ship with Part of the 31st Regiment on board, under the Command of Captain Archibald Hamilton, also put into Bermuda, on the 19th.

"On Tuesday last Mr. Philip Tidyman, was married, to "Miss Hetty Rose (Daughter of John Rose, Esq;) a most "amiable and accomplished young Lady—wanting no one "Requisite to render the Marriage-State happy"

The present Harvest Season having proved one of the most favourable ever known, we may now fairly pronounce, that this Year's Crop of RICE will far exceed any ever yet made in this Province. The Seasons have not however been alike propitious to the Makers of INDICO, for it is thought that some former Years have produced more than this of that Dye. But, of INDIAN CORN, it is apprehended, we shall have so little to spare, that, unless the Legislature should interpose, and prohibit its Exportation when above a certain Price, not only the POOR, but many Planters, and every Gentlemen's Horses, may feel the Want of it—for, if our Accounts from the other Colonies are to be credited, the short Crops made in most of them, and the Demand occasioned by the late Disasters in the West-Indies, will not leave us the usual Resources, should we be distressed.

 We are sorry that the Want of Room, has again obliged us to postpone the publishing the Verification of the Letter signed A FRIEND TO TRADE, till next Week.——NESTOR's Favour is received, and shall certainly have a Place in our next.——Another Letter from THE STRANGER has also been received, and several other Favours from our Correspondents, such of which as we imagine are worth the Public's Perusal, shall be inserted as soon as we can spare Room.

SUPPLEMENT to the South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1919.] THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1772.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

DESCRIPTION of a STORM.

At once the rushing winds with roaring sound
Burst from th' Æolian caves, and rend the ground.
Old limbs of trees from crackling forests torn,
Are whirl'd in air, and on the winds are born.
POPE's Statius.

SEE the whole atmosphere is hurled into the most tumultuous confusion. The aerial torrent bursts its way over mountains, seas, and continents. All things feel the dreadful shock. All things tremble before the furious blast. The forest, vexed and tore, groans under the scourge; her sturdy sons are strained to the very root, and almost kiss the soil they were wont to shade. The stubborn oak that disdains to bend is dashed headlong to the ground; and, with shattered arms, and prostrate trunk, blocks the road. While the flexible reed that springs in the marsh, yielding to the gust, eludes the force of the storm, and survives amidst the wide-spread havock.

For a moment, the turbulent and outrageous sky seems to be assuaged; but it intermits its wrath, only to increase its strength. Soon the sounding squadrons of the air return to their attack, and renew their ravages with redoubled fury. The stately dome rocks amidst the wheeling clouds. The impregnable tower totters on its basis, and threatens to overwhelm whom it was intended to protect.

The rugged rock is rent in pieces; and even the hills, the perpetual hills, on their deep foundations are scarce secure. Where now is the place of safety? When the city reels, and houses become heaps of ruin! Sleep affrighted flies from the eyes of mortals. Diversion is turned into horror. All is uproar in the elements; all is consternation among mortals, and nothing but one wide scene of rueful devastation through the land.

The ocean swells with tremendous commotions. The ponderous waves are heaved from their capacious bed, and almost lay bare the unfathomable deep. Flung in the most rapid agitation, they sweep over the rocks, they lash the lofty cliffs, and toss themselves into the clouds. Navies are rent from their anchors, and, with all their enormous load, are whirled swift as the arrow, wild as the winds, along the vast abyss. Now, they climb the rolling mountain, they plow the frightful ridge, and seem to skim the skies: Anon they plunge into the opening gulph, they lose the sight of day, and are lost themselves to every eye. How vain is the pilot's art! How impotent the mariner's strength! They reel to and fro, and stagger in the jarring hold; or cling to the cordage, while bursting seas foam over the deck. Despair in every face, and death sits threatening on every surge.

Now the clouds discharge themselves in a torrent of hail, that heavy artillery of the sky. Driven by the vehement wind, with what dreadful impetuosity does the strong showers fall? How it rebounds from the mountains, and rattles on the resounding dome! It attenuates the rivers into smoke, or scourges them into foam. It crushes the infant flowers, and destroys the gardener's early plants. But the fierce attack is quickly over. The clouds have soon spent their pointed shafts.

But, behold a bow of no hostile intention; a bow painted in variegated colours on the disburdened cloud. How vast is the extent, how delicate the texture of that showery arch! It compasseth the heavens with a glorious circle, and makes us forget the horrors of the storm. Elegant is its form, and rich its tinctures; but more delightful its sacred significancy. While the violet and the rose blush in its beautiful aspect, the olive-branch smiles in its gracious import. It writes in radiant dyes what the Angels sung in harmonious strains, "Peace on earth, good-will towards Men."

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subscriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years past, have thereby introduced it to Business.—He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindness to him, as it was very industriously insinuated, that Rice would not sell at his Wharf; But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himself all his Friends are fully so too, that their Crops, landed in large or small Parcels, will sell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and sell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooses to decline that Business, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will still land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he shall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all possible Dispatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is sure there are none preferable to them in Town in those Respects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more secure from Fire; and it is almost impossible for a Barrel of Rice to be stolen in landing or shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as use his Wharf constantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:—No prudent Planter but must be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmost Consequence to him, as many, for these three Years past, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) disposed of very much against their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is sure has been the Case, particularly this Year several Times, notwithstanding the Shortness of the Crop.

Messrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themselves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will transact their Business on his Wharf.—To these Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend such of his Friends who are not otherwise engaged.

Christopher Gadsden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for such Parcels of Rice as they purchase at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,
ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,
THAT THEY CONTINUE THE
Factorage Business in all its Branches,
(ON THE USUAL TERMS)

AND, for the Convenience of good Storage, will transact it on Captain GADSDEN's WHARF; where they desire such of their Friends, as it may be agreeable to, will order the Goods they intend to favour them with, being convinced, that they will sell as well there, as at any other Place in CHARLES-TOWN.——Constant Attendance will also be given at their other 'Compting-House on the BAY.

Their Friends will be supplied with proper Boats agreeable to their Orders: And they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favours, by a steady Attention to their Employers Interest, especially as they are determined to confine themselves to the Factorage Business only.—And they assure their Friends, that they are not in any Wise interested in Captain GADSDEN's Stores; so that whenever they shall think it necessary to store for a better Market, it must be SOLELY with a View to their Friends Interest.

Also, A bay MARE, about fourteen Years old, branded on the near Shoulder IC, and on the off Buttock BC, with a Star in her Forehead;—It is imagined she is a stolen Creature.

JAMES LINDLE, J. P.

SEVERAL Chimnies having taken Fire since the late cool Weather set in, the FIRE-MASTERS are sorry there should be so much Reason to censure the Inhabitants of this Town, for their shameful Inattention in a Matter which so greatly concerns the Properties, and, it may be, the Lives of the People here.——It is therefore hoped, that all Landlords as well as Masters of Families, will immediately have their Chimnies well cleaned of Soot, and take Care that they be carefully swept, ONCE every Fortnight, or Three Weeks at farthest; for no Excuse will be accepted in Abatement of the Penalty which the Law has imposed against all Defaulters in this Way. Moreover, it is expected, and will be insisted on, that all those Chimnies, the Vents of which are so narrow, as not to admit a Sweeper, should be pulled down, and properly rebuilt.

Were People to consider, how little Engines can avail in Case a Fire should happen when the Wind is high, they certainly would be careful to prevent Accidents of this Sort, as far as might be in their Power; for even allowing they had little or no Property of their own to lose, yet the Duty they owe to their Neighbour, and the Community in general, ought to induce them to guard against such distressing Casualties, whereby Numbers might be involved in Ruin ——Further, Joiners, House-Carpenters, Cabinet-Makers, and others who work in Wood, are hereby cautioned to clear their Shops of Shavings every Evening, and not to allow any Person to work either by Fire or Candle-Light, after Dark; for this Town has been often endangered by these Means, and almost one Half of it was consumed even in the Middle of the Day, within our own Memory, by making a Fire too near Shavings and other very combustible Materials.
